Your Guide to
LIVING WITH ROOMMATES

DISCUSS COMMON ISSUES

Overnight Guests
Unannounced, too frequent, or disrespectful behavior

Noise Levels
Volume levels of music/TV or loud guests

Food
Sharing, stealing, or cooking

Common Cleaning
Sharing supplies, different definitions of clean, taking out trash, washing dishes, or clutter

Policy Violations
A roommate violating policies within the apartment

Temperature in Apartment
Deciding on a temperature that works for everyone

IT’S OK TO COMPROMISE

Remember that four roommates means four ways of living. You should be prepared to adjust your expectations according to your roommates and vice-versa. For example, if you think the trash should be taken out twice a week, but your roommates think once every two weeks is okay, a good compromise could be to take out the trash once a week. Willingness to compromise will make living with roommates more enjoyable.

SHOW RESPECT

No matter the differences between roommates, you all should respect one another. Keep in mind that different does not mean bad. In fact, living with roommates from various backgrounds is a great opportunity to learn about different lifestyles, opinions, and cultures. If you’re committed to respecting those around you, you can live harmoniously with anyone.

BE RESPONSIBLE

Remember to take responsibility for your own space. You and your roommates have to be comfortable with everything that goes on in the apartment. At the beginning of the year, your RA will help you complete a Roommate Agreement Form with all of your roommates. This is a required step to live in University Housing and will help start the conversation among roommates about personal living preferences and how to best use the space.

COMMUNICATION IS KEY

For a successful and healthy roommate relationship, the lines of communication must be open. You can’t expect your roommates to read your mind, so be clear about your expectations, feelings, and differences.
KNOW THE RULES

You have a unique opportunity to live in a community with other students. To ensure that this is a positive experience for everyone, make yourself familiar with our community policy book. You can find this at housing.unomaha.edu.
MEET YOUR RAs AND RM

RESIDENT ASSISTANT (RA)
A full-time student leader who lives on campus and helps guide the experience of the residents within their building and in the housing community.

Your RA is responsible for:
› Creating fun events for residents
› Helping residents meet new people or learn new things
› Making sure that the housing community stays safe and inclusive
› Constructing amazing door decorations and bulletin boards

You can find your RA:
› Hanging out in their room with their door open
› Working at their desk in the clubhouse
› Walking around housing to check in on things
› Posting signs that inform residents about fun upcoming events

Talk to your RA if you:
› Have a question
› Are interested in getting more involved
› Have a great idea for an event
› Have a concern about your housing experience
› Just need someone to listen
› Want to get to know an amazing peer

RESIDENT MANAGER (RM)
A full-time professional staff member who lives on campus to help make the Housing and Residence Life experience engaging, educational, and inclusive.

Your RM is responsible for:
› Supervising the RA staff
› Adjudicating any conduct violation incidents
› Advising Residence Hall Council
› Representing Housing and Residence Life to the campus and community
› Getting to know residents

You can find your RM:
› Hanging out with residents
› Meeting with RAs
› Working on housing initiatives in their offices
› Walking around housing to talk to all of their residents

Talk to your RM if you:
› Need help understanding housing or campus policies
› Are looking for new ways to get involved
› Have concerns about your experience that your RA cannot address
› Want to make a new friend who is really cool and gives great advice
ADDRESSING AN ISSUE

Unfortunately, conflicts are almost inevitable when four individuals share one space. Addressing it properly will help to resolve issues and ideally prevent future occurrences. Below are three steps for addressing an issue with your new roommates.

1. COMMUNICATE YOUR EXPECTATIONS
   Roommates can’t read minds. A roommate won’t stop a behavior if they don’t know that there is a concern. It’s your responsibility to talk to your roommate(s). Let them know what the concern is and try to reach a common understanding or compromise.

2. TALK TO YOUR RESIDENT ASSISTANT
   If you’ve discussed the issue with your roommate(s), but the issue continues, you should let your RA know. Staff members are trained to help you resolve conflicts by assisting in a mediated conversation. Mediation offers roommates a safe space to discuss any issues. Your RA will help you and your roommates come to a solution and create a plan of action.

3. SOMETIMES YOU NEED A LITTLE SPACE
   If all of your attempts at resolving roommate issues have been unsuccessful, you can request a new room. Keep in mind that you can’t request that a roommate be moved from your current apartment. New room requests can only be processed if a different room is available and has been approved by the University Housing staff. This is a last resort for roommates in conflict. The fee to switch rooms is $50.00.

ROOMMATE TIP
You and your roommate(s) will be different. Keep a positive attitude and an open mind.
ROOMMATE TIP
Talk face-to-face with your roommates whenever possible. Leaving notes or sending texts or emails is not as effective.
OUR COMMITMENT TO STUDENT SAFETY

RESPONSIBILITIES OF PUBLIC SAFETY
› Protect life and property
› Provide building and exterior patrol
› Investigate criminal offenses
› Control the University Access System
› Provide emergency first-aid response for on-campus incidents

BIAS ASSESSMENT AND RESPONSE TEAM
UNO’s Bias Assessment and Response Team (BART) gathers information about non-emergency bias incidents and supports those who have become or witnessed someone become a target of an act of bias. It is also BART’s goal to increase opportunities for communication and restorative justice for students, staff, and faculty.

TEXT MESSAGE ALERTS
UNO has an emergency alert messaging system to provide timely warning for critical situations that may affect the university community. Messages are delivered in a variety of ways from overhead pages, PC alerts, email, social media alerts, and text messages. UNO uses text messaging to reach students wherever they are when alerts are sent. This is a free service, which UNO students are automatically enrolled in, but have the option to opt out of.

BEHAVIORAL REVIEW TEAM
As an interdisciplinary partnership, the university’s Behavioral Review Team (BRT) is the network of existing resources for prevention and early intervention of campus situations. These situations can sometimes involve students experiencing distress or engaging in harmful or disruptive behaviors. In support of UNO students, the BRT develops intervention and support strategies, offers case coordination, regularly reviews incidents, and recommends actions that address the situation. The BRT exists to make sure that students are not only safe, but also thriving on campus.

BLUE LIGHT EMERGENCY PHONES
Blue light emergency phones are located across campus. Use the phone to report emergencies or contact Public Safety for other assistance.
Safety Recommendations

Here's what you should avoid doing:

› Prop building doors open or open doors for anyone without a key or access card for that building.

› Open your door for unknown individuals unless they are university staff. Call Public Safety if the unknown individual makes you uncomfortable.

› Hide your keys under floor mats, over doors, or in other hiding places.

› Enter your apartment if you suspect that it has been entered illegally. Call Public Safety right away.

U-Tip for Anonymous Text Messaging

Use U-Tip to report suspicious activities or individuals on campus anonymously. The message will be sent directly to Public Safety. Send a message to 50911, and include UNO911 followed by your message.
SPEAK UP
Remember, we’re here to listen. If you have experienced or believe you have experienced discrimination, harassment, sexual harassment, sexual assault, and/or sexual violence, you have resources and reporting options. If an incident occurs to you or you know of an incident that has occurred, contact one of these areas who are ready to assist you.

Winter Weather
Check the UNO website for any specific information about classes being cancelled. You will also receive a UNO text alert in the case of classes being cancelled.

Power Outage
If you experience a power outage, call the front desk or the on-call RA if after hours.

EMERGENCY PROCEDURES (CONT’D)

Maintenance
Contact the on duty RA if you experience any issues with a leaking sink, plumbing issues, or issues with your heating or A/C unit. Non-emergency maintenance requests should be reported on the housing website.

Natural Gas
If you smell natural gas, leave the apartment. Do not use a light switch, telephone, or cell phone. Immediately report the issue to housing staff.

Fire
You must exit your apartment and report to your clubhouse when a fire alarm is sounding in your building. Never hang anything on sprinkler heads. Lock your door and take your keys and ID with you.

Tornado
If tornado conditions exist, leave your suite, lock your door, and head towards the tornado shelter. At Scott Hall and Scott Court the emergency shelters are located on the first floor. At Scott Village proceed to the basement of the Commons Building. Scott Crossing residents should go to the first-floor north hallway.

UNO Lockdown
In the event of a hostile or emergency situation on campus or in the surrounding community, the university may enact “Shelter in Place.” In this situation, the Campus Wide Paging System would instruct all members of the campus community to stay in place. All residents and staff members should follow the directions given through the broadcast system.
Free student seats for all athletic events are available on a first come, first served basis with your MavCARD.

UNO students receive free admission to concerts, sporting events, art exhibits, and other events.

UNO’s new home to Maverick Hockey, Basketball, Volleyball, intramurals, and campus and community events opened in fall 2015.

CENTRALIZED BILLING
UNO has a centralized billing system. Access your bill via your MavLINK account or a parent may be set up as guest to your account.

UNIVERSITY HOUSING BILLING PROCESS
Any charges incurred for tuition and fees and University Housing will appear on one statement. All other billing such as lock outs, damages, recores, and other charges will be billed directly from housing to the student and will not be on MavLINK. Payments made for University Housing are applied to tuition and fees first on the centralized bill. Unpaid bills are subject to late fees. If you are awarded scholarships and financial aid, it will be credited to your UNO Student Account and will be applied against your tuition, fees, and housing. This is dispersed once in the fall and once in the spring. All scholarships and financial aid that is applied to MavLINK goes towards tuition and fees first, then is applied to housing.

For questions related to charges or payments towards your housing on your centralized bill, please contact University Housing at 402.778.6541.

STUDENT CODE OF CONDUCT
Any student removed from campus housing for student conduct reasons will be held liable for the terms of their contract. Violating student conduct policies does not provide students the ability to end their housing contract. Students looking to end their housing contract forfeit their $200 deposit for the administrative cancellation fee.

CANCELLATION POLICY
For details on the cancellation policy, please see your housing contract or email unohousing@unomaha.edu for more info.
