Curriculum for International Studies

International Studies Secondary Major

A student seeking a secondary major in International Studies must successfully complete two core courses plus courses in a selected Topical Module and Geographic region; demonstrate proficiency in a language relevant to the selected geographic region (see below); and participate in a required study, service, or work abroad program (see below).

Core Courses

INTST 235 Introduction to International Studies (3 credits)
INTST 430 Seminar in International Studies (3 credits)

Topical Module Courses

Student must select a Topical Module in which to concentrate. A minimum of 9 credits (at least 6 of which are numbered 300 or above) must be chosen from one of the following topical areas:

- Global Environmental Issues
- Globalization & Economic Development
- International Issues in Science & Technology
- International Communication
- International Conflict
- Social & Cultural Change

Geographic Region Courses

Each student must also select a Geographic Region in which to concentrate. A minimum of 9 credits (at least 6 of which are numbered 300 or above) must be chosen from one of the following geographic areas:

- Africa & the Middle East
- Asia
- Latin America
- Western Europe
- Russia, Eastern Europe & Central Asia

3 additional credits of coursework selected from either the Geographic Region or Topical Module.

Proficiency in a world language that is relevant to the selected geographic region. This can be achieved by completing the 202 level (or higher) of the language or by passing an approved exam.

Study, service, or internship abroad for a minimum of 3 weeks, earning a minimum of 3 credits. The credits must be transferable to Iowa State.

The major must include a minimum of 12 credits not used to meet any other department, college, or university requirement.
International Studies Minor
