Dear Public Policy Community:

A group of faculty, alumni and others are establishing a fund in memory of Daniel Wong, who graduated with a Public Policy degree in 2013. Daniel died of what is suspected to be viral encephalitis on December 3, 2013 at the age of 22. We are asking you to contribute to the Daniel Raymond Wong Memorial Fellowship Fund.

The Fund will support summer fellowships under the direction of the Program in Public Policy for students who demonstrate Daniel’s interests and characteristics – and his spirit. Daniel was driven by helping others, especially through education and public service. We are convinced that an endowed fellowship is the best way for us to honor and remember this remarkable young man.

Language from the Stanford Development regarding the fund, as well as a letter from Daniel’s parents, Raymond and Nora Wong, can be found at publicpolicy.stanford.edu/about/make-gift/daniel-raymond-wong-memorial-fellowship

You can contribute:

1. By check, made out to: Stanford University—Daniel Raymond Wong Memorial Fund. Please mail to the Public Policy Program, 366 Galvez Street, Stanford, CA 94305-6050.
2. Online at giving.stanford.edu

Directions:
- Click on the upper right button at ‘Make a Gift.’
- Use the following drop-down choices: ‘Centers, Institutes, and More’ in the first box and ‘Other Designation (specify below)’ in the second.
- Type ‘Daniel Raymond Wong Memorial Fund’ in the ‘Special Instructions/Other Designation’ box.
- Under ‘Gift Type,’ choose ‘One-Time Gift’ and enter the amount you wish to donate.
- Do not check any boxes under ‘Options.’
- Sign in as a guest (or with your Stanford Development account if you have one) and enter the information requested on the following page. Please do check if you employer will match your gift.

A few individuals have already contributed to the fund, but we need your help to hit the $100,000 mark. Please do give as much as you can.

Sincerely,

Joe Nation
