candidate

(noun) a person being considered for a position campaign

(noun) a political contest; a series of activities to achieve a goal ethics (noun) beliefs about what is morally right issue

(noun) a matter of public concern; an important topic of debate display

(verb) to show something; to put something where people can see it