NEW Leadership™ Texas
Thursday, May 31, 2018

8:00 - 9:00am  Breakfast
Welcome and introductions
• Susan Heinzelman, Director of CWGS
• Nancy Ewert, Program Coordinator

9:00 - 11:00am  Effective Presentation and Communication
• Dr. Teri Varner, Associate Professor, St. Edward’s University
One of the best ways to learn new skills is through practice. During the NEW Leadership™ Texas summer institute, each student will practice public speaking skills by introducing one of our speakers, panelists or workshop leaders.

11:00 - 11:15am  Break

11:15am - 12:15pm  Small Group Discussions

2:45 - 3:00pm  Break

3:00 - 4:30pm  Introduction to Women in Politics
• Dr. Irasema Coronado, Professor, Department of Political Science, UT El Paso
We’ll explore the ways in which traditional definitions of politics and leadership reinforce barriers to women and people of color. We’ll discuss the important civic contributions women have made to American politics throughout history, the limited representation of women in high-level government offices, and the proportion of women in positions of power.

4:45 - 6:00pm  Examining Women’s Leadership (and Self-Care) through the #MeToo Movement
• Maggie Buchanan, President, Maggie Jo Consulting, LLC
The 2016 election set off a new wave of women running for office, running campaigns, and running social movements. Using #MeToo as an example, we’ll examine how, although focusing efforts for social change on the real experiences of women--especially women of color--is vital to increasing women’s representation and crafting responsive, effective policy, this work can also be emotionally challenging for those involved. Together, we’ll develop new ideas on how sustainable social justice work must involve strategies for self-care, as well as care for our fellow activists.

6:00 - 7:00pm  Dinner

7:00 - 8:00pm  Intro to Political Action Project - Texas’ Law of Parties, HB 316
