export

(noun) a good or service sent to another country for sale symbolic (adjective) representative of something else, such as an idea domestic

(adjective) made in, done in, or otherwise related to one’s own country integrate (verb) to combine or unite into a whole efficient
(adjective) productive without wasting time, energy, or resources; effective