TEXAS SCIENTISTS CHANGE THE WORLD

HECTOR GARcía

Garcia, a UT Austin zoology graduate and civil rights pioneer, founded the American GI Forum, advocating for the health and wellbeing of U.S. veterans of Mexican-American descent. He was an accomplished surgeon and among the first Latino graduates of any University of Texas medical school, receiving multiple awards and honors including the Presidential Medal of Freedom, the nation’s highest award for a civilian.