Papers presented to the CTICR plenum on the ordination of women

1991
‘The Ordination of Women: Final Report of the Special Committee to the Commission on Theology and Inter-Church Relations, Lutheran Church of Australia.’

1992, March
Women and the Ministry: A Study on Women and the Office of the Public Ministry (congregational study booklet), J G Strelan.

1994, October
‘Do 1 Corinthians 14:33-36 and 1 Timothy 2:11-15 clearly support the LCA’s stance on the ordination of women?’ J G Strelan and V C Pfitzner.

December
‘Critique of the paper by J G Strelan and V C Pfitzner on the exegesis of 1 Corinthians 14:33-38 and 1 Timothy 2:11-15’, J W Kleinig.

1995, February
‘1 Timothy 2:8-15’, Elmore Leske.

February
‘Critique of 1 Corinthians 14:33-36, a study of which appeared in the paper, ‘Do 1 Corinthians 14:33-36 and 1 Tim 2:11-15 clearly support the LCA’s stance on the ordination of women?’’ Peter A Kriewaldt.

February
‘A brief response to “Do 1 Corinthians 14:33-36 and 1 Timothy 2:11-15 clearly support the LCA’s stance on the ordination of women?”’ Dean Zweck.

March
‘Other Relevant Issues for the Discussion on the Ordination of Women’, Vic Pfitzner.

September

1996, March

July
‘Christ, the Apostles and the Priest’, Peter Kriewaldt.

1997 March
‘The Office of the Lutheran Ministry from the Standpoint of the Confessions, including the ‘persona Christi’ and the image of God’, Rolph Mayer.
March
‘The Lutheran Confessions and the Office of the Ministry’, Andrew Pfeiffer.

December
‘General Hermeneutical Principles’, Peter Kriewaldt.

December
‘Discussion Points on 3.4 to 3.6 of the Report of the CTICR Special Committee on the Ordination of Women’, Vic Pfitzner.

1998, 12,13 March (Extraordinary meeting on the ordination of women)
‘Pastoral Considerations’, Lance Steicke

‘Hermeneutical principles applicable to the ordination of women’, Lionel Otto and Brian Schwarz.

‘Lutheran Hermeneutics’, Edgar Mayer.

‘A Case for the Male Pastorate: Why the Catholic and Apostolic Church has always reserved the Office of the Ministry to Males and opposed the Ordination of Women’, Peter Kriewaldt.

‘The Case for the Ordination of Women’, Peter Lockwood.

(The papers prepared for the March special meeting of the CTICR were drafts. The final copy of the material by Pfitzner, Kriewaldt and Lockwood was included in the study materials disseminated to the church in June 1998.)

June

1 June

26 November
‘The Ordination of Women: Initial Report of the Commission on Theology and Inter-Church Relations.’

December
‘The Ordination of Women and Church Divisiveness.’

2000 March
‘The Final Report of the Commission on Theology and Inter-Church Relations on the Ordination of Women.’

2002 August
‘Authority and “Power” in the Church’, reworked by faculty from a 1992 paper.

December
Two responses to John Kleinig’s paper on women’s ordination and the trinity, by Edgar Mayer and Greg Lockwood, and a response to Edgar’s paper by John Kleinig.

December
‘The Gospel and the Interpretation of Scripture’, CTICR.

December
‘The Pastoral Ministry’, faculty paper.

December
‘Discussion paper on post-modernism’, TINZ.

December
‘Pastors and the Question of Authority and Power’, Edgar Mayer.

2003 March
‘Pastors as Spiritual Fathers’, released by executive as a discussion document.

2003 April
‘The Interpretation of Scripture’, Peter Kriewaldt (released by the executive as a discussion paper)