As an International Studies major, a world of opportunities open up that span the globe. The International Studies major cultivates skills that are translatable across continents and cultures. Even within the United States there are a wealth of possibilities for International Studies Majors.

College graduates need to be prepared for a new world - one digitally linked, partnered in trade, and demanding transnational solutions.

UNO’s International Studies Major (INST), an interdisciplinary Bachelor of Arts degree program, provides undergraduate students with the necessary background in global affairs and intercultural communications, as well as career-focused concentrations. The degree is individualized, flexible and marketable.

Course Highlights:
- Global Business Leadership
- International Organizations
- International Sustainable Development
- International Conflict Resolution
- Intelligence and National Security
- US Foreign Policy
- Inter-American Politics
- International Relations of the Middle East

Knowledge & Skills Gained as an International Studies Major:

Knowledge
- Multidisciplinary understanding of global processes and relationships
- Theoretical and factual knowledge of particular regions of the world

Skills:
- Study the equivalent of three years of university-level foreign language study or two years each of two foreign languages
- Develop cultural awareness and sensitivity
- Improve written and oral communication skills
- Consider a variety of perspectives and interpretations of the current world events

International Studies Major at a glance:
- Number of majors: 133
- Degrees offered: B.A.
- Concentrations: Yes (see reverse side)
- Credit hours needed: 45
- Minors offered: Yes (18 credits)
Career Opportunities

By nature, Liberal Arts majors make great employees in any field because of their ability to communicate effectively, think critically and solve complex problems. These timeless skills make them attractive to employers in all walks of society. Specifically though, International Studies majors often pursue careers in:

- Cross Cultural Communications
- Diplomacy & Foreign Service
- International Commerce
- Global Business
- European Union Consultant
- International Development Consultant
- Cultural Diversity Trainer
- International Law and Policy
- International Student Advisor
- Environmental Specialist
- English as a Second Language (ESL) Teacher
- International Non-profit Organization
- Humanitarian Relief Worker
- Peace Corps
- Public Service Officer
- Foreign Affairs Officer

When the INST major is matched with complementary minors and thoughtful internships, new possibilities arise:

- INST + Law = Foreign Affairs officer, US Department of State
- INST + Business = International Business
- INST + Environmental Studies = Environmental Specialist
- INST + Foreign Language = ESL Teacher
- INST + Information and Science Technology = Global IT Leadership & Management

Concentrations Available

- International Management & Business Leadership
- Area Studies
- Global Strategic Studies
- International Nonprofit Management & Leadership
- Global IT Leadership & Management

Student Opportunities

- International Café
- International Education Week
- UNO’s Global Diplomat Program
- Conversation & Culture Hour
- Batchelder Biblical Archaeology Conference
- Global Studies Conference
- Nancy Keegan Miller Scholarship
- Special support to Study Abroad

For more information:

For program information, contacts and course requirements:

cas.unomaha.edu/inst

Dr. Patrick McNamara, Director  Vickie Stone, Advisor
pmcnamara@unomaha.edu vicstone@unomaha.edu
402.554.2389 402.554.2966

The University of Nebraska at Omaha shall not discriminate based upon age, race, ethnicity, color, national origin, gender-identity, sex, pregnancy, disability, sexual orientation, genetic information, veteran’s status, marital status, religion, or political affiliation.